

U.S. Embassy Bahrain
Demonstration Notice 13 – February 27, 2014

A reminder that there will be increased protests, attempts to disrupt traffic, protests near economic centers, suspicious packages planted, tire fires and additional clashes against police during the time period from February 11, 2014 to March 31, 2014 that may not occur in the restricted areas.

As a continuation of yesterday's events, a violent opposition group has called for a funeral procession to take place today at 3:00pm in the Daih village area. Anticipate that the road networks into and around Daih, Sanabis, and Jidhafs villages will be affected through Sunday, March 2, 2014. The Budaiya Highway corridor near these villages will be affected. Avoid this highway. Expect increased police activity and heavy traffic. Clashes are likely in this area. We highly recommend that you avoid travel through these areas from today through Sunday (Yellow Oval).

Tomorrow, February 28, 2014, at 4:00 pm, an opposition group has called for a march from Daih to Bilad al Qadeem. The road networks between Daih and Bilad al Qadeem will be affected from 4:00 pm through the late evening hours. Expect increased police activity and heavy traffic. Clashes are possible. We recommend that you avoid travel through these restricted areas (Orange oval).

Certain groups in Bahrain plan to disrupt traffic during the above mentioned time frame. These disruptions may appear around the country and at all times of the day. These disruptions may have an impact on the morning, afternoon, and evening commute. Anticipate that alternate routes established by the Police may be used to protect all citizens. Develop your own alternate routes given your daily schedule. Utilize GPS devices to their maximum extent. Maintain your situational awareness.

There have been no direct attacks on U.S. citizens to date. We recommend that you continually exercise the appropriate level of security awareness in regards to anti-U.S. activity or events. Spontaneous and, at times, violent anti-government of Bahrain protests continue to occur, particularly at night and on weekends. These protests have included blockades of major highways with burning debris and the establishment of unofficial checkpoints. Protestors have thrown rocks and Molotov cocktails and used homemade weapons to include improvised explosive devices and shotgun like projectile launchers. To counter these acts the Ministry of Interior will utilize crowd control measures, such as tear gas, stun grenades, and birdshot. Violent clashes between security forces and protestors can make travel in and around Bahrain dangerous without advance warning. The Ministry of Interior maintains official checkpoints in certain areas. We remind U.S. citizens that even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and possibly escalate into violence. U.S. citizens are therefore urged to avoid the areas of demonstrations if possible, and to exercise caution if within the vicinity of any demonstrations.

Please see below for a map. Areas shaded in red are off-limits to U.S. Citizen Embassy employees and their family members at all times. U.S. Citizen Embassy employees and their family members are permitted to travel in the areas shaded in yellow during daylight hours only. The Embassy advises all Americans to avoid travel within red zones as a general rule whenever possible.
